

Mansion of Shadows for True20 Adventure Roleplaying

By Robert J. Schwalb

This web enhancement details how to adapt Mansion of Shadows for use with True20 Adventure Roleplaying. Nearly all of the adventure can be run as is, with little to no adaptation, so long as you follow the conversion guidelines in True20 Adventure Roleplaying. All of the following stat-blocks replace those found in the adventure.

Random Encounters

The random encounters described in the Kirsvald Gazetteer present a selection of creatures, many of which aren't included in True20 Adventure Roleplaying. Feel free to substitute creatures from the rulebook (calibans, skeletons, and zombies all being good choices) or if you have True20 Bestiary, you can find most of the converted statistics there.

Creating a Sinthrall Creature

A sinthrall is an acquired template that can be added to any living creature with an Intelligence score of -3 or more (referred to hereafter as the base creature). A sinthrall uses all the base creature's statistics and special abilities except as noted here.

Type: The creature's type changes to outsider. Do not recalculate Hit Dice, base attack bonus or saves. It also gains the vice and native subtypes.

Abilities: Increase from the base creature as follows depending on sin.

Wrath—Str +2, Int -2 , Wis -1 .

Envy—Dex +2, Cha -2 .

Lust—Con +1, Int -1 , Wis -2 , Cha +2.

Sloth—Dex -2 , Con -1 , Int +1, Wis +2.

Gluttony—Con +2, Wis -2 , Cha -1 .

Greed—Dex +1, Int +2, Wis -1 , Cha -2 .

Pride— +2 to any one, -1 to any two.

Skills: A sinthrall gains skill as an outsider and has skills equal to $(8 + \text{Int modifier, minimum } 1 \text{ known skill})$.

In addition, the sinthrall gains bonuses to certain skills depending on its sin of choice. Wrath sinthralls gain a +3 bonus to Intimidate checks, Envy a +3 bonus to Sense Motive checks, Lust a +3 bonus to Bluff checks, Sloth a +3 bonus to Diplomacy checks, Gluttony a +3 bonus to Concentration checks, Greed a +3 bonus to Sleight of Hand checks, Pride a +3 bonus to any one skill.

Feats: All sinthralls gain Skill Focus (Notice) as a bonus feat.

Traits: A sinthrall retains the base creature's traits and gains those described below based on sin. Save Difficulties are equal to 10 plus half the sinthrall's level (round down) plus the sinthrall's Charisma, unless otherwise noted.

Wrath: The wrath sinthrall gains Rage as a bonus feat. If he already has this feat, he may use rage one additional time per day.

Envy: The envy sinthrall gains Skill Focus as a bonus feat.

Lust: Once per day, lust sinthrall can select a single living creature within 30 feet that has HD equal to or less than its own. The target must succeed on a Will save or have its attitude change to helpful for a number of hours equal to the sinthrall's Charisma bonus (minimum 1 hour).

Sloth: The sloth sinthrall gains Suggestion as a bonus feat.

Gluttony: Once per day, a gluttony sinthrall may spew a 20-foot cone of corrosive vomit. Creatures in the area take +2 damage per 3 levels of the sinthrall (1–3, +2; 4–6, +4, and so on). Creatures in the area are entitled to Reflex save (DC 10 + 1/2 the sinthrall's level + the sinthrall's Constitution score) for half damage.

Greedy: The sinthrall gains a +4 bonus to disarm and grab attacks. As well, it gains a +2 bonus to initiative checks.

Pride (Su): Once per day, as a swift action a pride sinthrall can emit an aura of superiority in a 20-foot radius that lasts 1 round. All creatures in the area must succeed on a Will save or take a –2 penalty to all attacks, damage, saves, and checks for a number of rounds equal to the pride sinthrall's Charisma score (minimum 1 round).

As well, all sinthralls have all the following traits.

- Darkvision out to 60 ft.
- Immunity to acid and poison.
- Resistance to cold 4, electricity 4, and fire 4.

Saves: Increase the base creature's natural armor bonus to Toughness saves by 2.

Level Lag: 1.
